Description and History

The Mental Health Trust Authority was formed in 1991 to assist beneficiaries through the terms of the mental health trust lands settlement. This fund was established in FY95 after the mental health lands dispute was settled.

Mental Health Trust Administrative funds are used by the Mental Health Trust Authority for the administration of mental health beneficiary projects/programs as part of the state's comprehensive integrated mental health plan. This fund receives collections made by the Department of Natural Resources on Mental Health Lands. Collections are transferred to the Alaska Permanent Fund Corporation for investment. Funds appropriated are the earnings from the principal of the Trust.

This code is used to differentiate administrative expenses from money spent on programs for beneficiaries.
